96
2.

London U. Library Coll.

Stationers-Hall, April 26. 1694.

Whereas Notice hath been given by the Master of the Company of STATIONERS, that complaint hath been to him made, and an Information for and on the behalf of their Majesties and the Vice-Chancellors of the Two Universities; Drawn up by their Majesties Attorney-General, to be Exhibited in the Court of Exchequer against all Defaulters, Who have not sent in to him for the use of their Majesties Library, and the Libraries of the said Universities, Three Printed Copies (of the Best and Largest Paper) of every Book Printed, or Reprinted with additions. And Whereas you, as one of those Defaulters, are Liable to be Prosecuted thereupon, the Master hath thought fit to give you this further Friendly notice, that the day of Mr. Attorney-General's exhibition of the said Information draws nigh, and therefore desires you, that as you would avoid Process thereupon, and the Charge that will ensue, that you forthWith send in to him all the said Books to Stationers-Hall, Where he or Mr. Tooke Will receive the same for the purpose aforesaid.

By Order of the Master.

Nicholas Hooper, Beadle.